

NatHalie Braun Barends

(also known as Petsiré, BHêtziré, Hetziré, at al, H, PetsireH)

Selected activities

NatHalie Braun Barends, also known as Petsire, is an international multi-media artist at home in many cultures. Her work includes paintings, photography, video, light installations and HHappenings. Her works are shown, and part of collections, in Museums and Cultural Institutions worldwide.

== Life and works ==

NatHalie Braun Barends was born in Germany and grew up mostly in Brasil and Chile. She studied art in Sao Paolo (Brasil), Firenze (Italy), Vienna (Austria) and Banff (Canada). She lived and worked mainly in Brasil, Chile, USA, France, Austria, Italy and Germany.

One of the focuses of her work is light in many of its manifestations. She researches and creates symbols, works with natural and light emitting pigments, new media and materials or design.

Among other things she promotes awareness about safety issues and often uses Fire Blankets and Space Blankets for her artworks.

She participates in social-ambiental projects and is interested in local cultures, their rituals and tribal organization: Xavantes or A'uwẽ Uptabi in Brazil, Hopi in the USA, Mapuche in Cile, Aboriginal Australians, Bantu in Gabon.

Some examples of her site specific multimedia installations are PHaradise and HHole for Mannheim in Germany. (www.HHole.net HHole website and www.PHaradise.net)
